

Course Number: FSAP10A

Course Title: ADA & Accessible Bathing Design Essentials: A Guide for Architects and Engineers

Provider: Ron Blank & Associates, Inc. | 800-248-6364

Subjects Covered in Course: (Learning Objectives)

1. Differentiate between ADA-compliant and accessible design for public and residential bathing spaces
2. Recall key accessibility standards (ADA, ANSI, IBC) and their applications when designing bathing spaces
3. Apply best accessible design practices for grab bars, threshold types, seating, and material selection
4. Address real-world challenges in accessible design.

About the Author/Presenter:

Ryan Holt

Vice-President, Freedom Showers by Accessibility Professionals

Ryan Holt is Vice President at Accessibility Professionals, a leader in home modifications and accessibility solutions. His work empowers individuals to age in place safely while also supporting architects, designers, and construction professionals in creating spaces that are accessible, inclusive, and ADA compliant.